Doors

All types of doors

Doors that were opened, Doors that were shut

Doors that should've been opened but never were

M.L.K., J.F.K.

These men led the way

But still some doors remain shut today

How is a young black man to succeed in a world that wants to hold him back?

Why should he have to walk the street and be stared at shiftily just 'cause he's black?

Will the racism ever stop?

Will that bubble ever pop?

Even though there's a black man in charge

Racism against blacks is still at large

The only way this can ever be fixed

Is if blacks and whites get in the mix

If whites would lose their superior mentality
And blacks would stop thinking everyone's an enemy.

Then maybe this could be a friendship that lasts the century.
